Lori, thank you for the welcome. Sorry I am so late in replying. I would like for you to add me to your list for prayers. Since late December I have had problems with my back, gone to therapy for 12 weeks, exercises, etc. Lori, normally the back is ok if I keep to a routine of handling it. It is a bit different here as we have much company and you know the guys (G) more work so due to lack of exercise in the winter months and more housework has "done me in"

I firmly believe the Lord uses all things for good. At times I have prayed and the back is good immediately. Other times not so and later I can look back and see that the Lord used that problem for many good things. It took me many years to thank Him in all situations and understand He always has a reason and it is GOOD. Maybe, I need prayers to understand and be accepting many times. That is what I am asking.

Thank you and may the Lord bless you and yours today.

P.S. I am slowly going through Mike's sermons since I got in here so late. May the Lord bless and keep him strong.

Oh Shar--we sure will put you on the list. Back pain is so tough. But the Lord can help. Thanks for being a part of our little body here. If you have a nice pic feel free to send it for me to put in our Riverview Gallery. ;)
