Susan and Sabrina will be visiting July 9,10,11

She will attend church with us on July 11th. We are excited to see them and know she will be bringing joy and great news about Sabrina's latest job hunt. Hooray!:laugh:

Thank you, Lori, for spreading the word. I have not visited for quite a while and look forward to seeing everyone. I will fly to Austin, TX on July 3 and help Sabrina pack, spend a few days with Ed and Shari and their family, who are vacationing in TX to spend time with Sabrina, and then head north to see you for a few days before we drive west to Sabrina's new job. Thank you all for your prayers!
